Part 3 Parking contrary to parking restriction

Parking permits

A vehicle may be parked contrary to an indication on an official traffic sign regulating parking by time or payment of a fee, if the vehicle displays—

- (a) a parking permit for people with disabilities;¹ or
- (b) a permit issued by the local government and valid for the place and time at which the vehicle is parked.

7 Parking permits issued by local government—Authorising local law, s 7(2)

For section 7(2) of the authorising local law, the following persons may be issued with a parking permit mentioned in section 7(1) of the authorising local law—

- (a) persons who have been granted approval under another local law for the commercial use of a local government controlled area, where the permit is necessary to undertake the commercial use; or
- (b) a person engaged in tourism-related business; or
- (c) school bus operations; or

- (d) local government employees, elected members, contractors or agents for the purpose of carrying out work for or on behalf of local government; or
- (e) residents of a road for which a permit is required; or
- (f) a person who is undertaking building or construction work in the following circumstances—
 - (i) the part of the road to which the application relates is adjacent to the site of the proposed building or construction work; and
 - (ii) the carrying out of the building or construction work is lawful; and
 - (iii) having regard to the nature of the building or construction work and the characteristics of the site of the work, it is not reasonable practical for all work activity involving vehicle loading and unloading and associated vehicle movements to be confined within the site;
- (g) official news media journalists, camera operators, or persons in some other way engaged in a news gathering capacity for a magazine, newspaper, radio or television broadcast, or
- (h) a not-for-profit community service organisation which undertakes a temporary activity that is consistent with the objectives of the community service organisation; or
- (i) a person who is engaged in a temporary activity affecting premises immediately adjacent to the designated parking space or spaces to which the application for a permit relates; or
- (j) a person whose ability to park in the immediate vicinity of their residence has been affected by a road closure of other activity; or
- (k) any other person who in the opinion of an authorised person has reasonable grounds to warrant the issue of a parking permit.
